Single Artwork

Sydney, Australia's Enerate, released 'Half Asleep' on August 25th 2017 - The first single from their forthcoming debut release.

September 8th sees the band release their music video for 'Half Asleep'. A glorious tale of love and longing set against a backdrop of rural Australia, and outer space. 'Half Asleep' features upbeat elastic synth arpeggios which drive the song along, whilst the trademark uplifting vocals of Josh Graham & Therese watson soar above the beat.

The song and video will feature on Enerate's forthcoming video album 'Good Times Airlines', which is set for release in September 2017.

Enerate are perhaps best known for their ethereal synth pop debut Unstoppable, which recieved a lot of presenter love on Triple J Unearthed.. and it's loveable music video which premiered in prime time on ABC TV's RAGE alongside Tame Impala, and Flume. In addition, the song was featured internationally on MTV's teen drama 'Awkward.' And on a summertime Pepsi Max Ad.

Enerate have made their mark on the live scene, with their tight shows, and brightly coloured interactive graphics, playing iconic venues such as Oxford Art Factory, & FBi Social. This year will see them lock down their first national tour of major cities.
